

STOLPMAN SYRAH

Stolpman is one of the landmark vineyards of our neighboring AVA—Ballard Canyon— and we're extremely pleased to add this amazing site to our profile of Syrahs. The block from which we source contains the oldest planted vines in Ballard Canyon, and provide Syrah fruit of stunning complexity, age-worthy structure, and bold, fruit-forward tannins.

2021 STOLPMAN SYRAH

grown at: stolpman vineyard ava: ballard canyon clone: 877 soils: chemise clay loam harvested: september 2021 brix at harvest:
23.1 vinification: fermented on skins in bins with 30% dried stems élevage: 20% new french oak for 22 months bottled: january 2024 cases produced: 160 release date: sept. 2024 ageability: 10 years
retail price: $54

We pull fruit from the oldest block in the Ballard Canyon AVA for this limited annual bottling. Our new vintage of this clone 877 Syrah delivers bold blackberry and plum flavors, supported by firm tannins. Notes of dark chocolate, smoked meat, and black pepper add complexity, making it a perfect match for grilled lamb, smoky steaks, and aged Gouda.